Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream so bright,
I walked with God in soft moonlight.
Across the sand, we strolled along,
With happy hearts and joyful song.

I looked behind, and to my surprise,
Two sets of footprints met my eyes.
But then I saw just one small track,
When things were hard and looking back.

“Dear God,” I said, “Where did you go?
I needed you—you didn’t show.”
God smiled and gently held my hand,
“I never left you in the sand.”

“When you see one set on the shore,
It’s then I carried you—and more.
I’ll always help you through each test,
Just walk with me and do your best.”
